

2017 Grand Marshals
Featuring:

Frank Scott

After graduating from the Connecticut School of Broadcasting in Farmington CT in 1992, Frank embarked on a long radio career. First landing the midday personality position at WBLQ in Narragansett RI, then nights and eventually mornings at WCCC in Hartford CT. In 1995 Frank accepted the morning position at WKRO in Daytona Beach, FL and moved to WHOG in October 1996. Frank's primary position was Morning Show Host between 1996 and 2015. On January 1st of 2015, Frank helped launch the new "Rock of Daytona" radio station on WROD, a station that had been a staple in Daytona Beach since 1947. The successful run of the Frank and Tracy Radio Show continues to this day on WROD in Daytona Beach.

In July 2016 Frank decided to round out his career with stage acting and auditioned for the play Noises Off at the Daytona Playhouse. He was offered the part of Freddy Fellows/Philip Brent and performed seven shows in September 2016.

Frank continues to do voice over work for radio and television commercials as well as radio acting, comedy and producing audio pieces. Other interests include graphic arts, web site development and research. Frank past (and present) roles include US Army Paratrooper, Drill Sergeant, Bread Salesman, father and grandfather.