Black Methodism LEGACY OF FAITH Revival

Order the new DVD that celebrates the vibrant history, faith and contributions of black people in The United Methodist Church. Learn about the challenges they have overcome and those they face for the future.

This special edition DVD celebrates the 40th anniversary of several pivotal, related events in the life and history of The United Methodist Church:

- The end of the racially segregated Central Jurisdiction in 1967
- The founding of Black Methodists for Church Renewal in 1967
- The birth, through merger, of The United Methodist Church in 1968
- The establishment of the denomination's General Commission on Religion and Race in 1968.

The original "Black Methodism: Legacy of Faith" was first broadcast in 1994 on "Catch the Spirit," the popular United Methodist television program. We've added a new introduction and updated the ending in this special edition of the award-winning video.

Use it for Sunday school, new-member classes, study and fellowship groups, heritage celebrations, special meetings, events and retreats. Order it for your personal or church's video collection. (Also, visit www.ecufilm.org for a free online study guide. Just click on "Study Guides" in the lower right-hand corner, and select "Black Methodism: Legacy of Faith" from the list of guides.)

Running Time: 31 minutes. Produced for The United Methodist Church by the General Commission on Religion and Race and United Methodist Communications, in partnership with National Black Methodists for Church Renewal.
