

Peace Story Time

Peace Story Time is an opportunity for children in our community to learn about domestic violence in a way that is age-appropriate. We encourage each location to be creative with their peace story time, but the YWCA Northeast Indiana is here to provide help and guidance when needed.

In order to participate in Peace Story Time all you need is the following:

1. Books about healthy relationships and peaceful behavior
2. Activities that continue the conversation
3. A group of kids!

Ideas!

Books

- Hands Are Not For Hitting by Martine Agassi, Ph.D.
- Words Are Not For Hurting by Elizabeth Verdick
- A Terrible Thing Happened by Margaret Holmes

Activities

- Friendly Hands: Talk about ways people can be friendly with their hands with activities like playing pat-a-cake, or holding hands to dance.
- Feeling Faces. Together think of as many words for feelings as you can. Have children make a face to correspond to each feeling.
- "If you are happy and you know it" song.

Peace Story Time

Peace Story Time is an opportunity for the children in our community to learn about domestic violence in a way that is age-appropriate. Libraries and schools throughout YWCA Northeast Indiana's six-county service area will gather for Peace Story Time, to read a story and educate children on peace and non-violence. We hope we can count on you to participate!
