Stop. Think. Connect.™ Campaign Partners with the YWCA

(Miami, FL – January 23, 2012) The YWCA of Greater Miami-Dade, through collaboration with YWCA USA has partnered with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and its cybersecurity awareness Campaign, Stop. Think. Connect.™

As a part of Stop. Think. Connect. Miami, the YWCA and the Department of Homeland Security will present Stop. Think. Connect.™ message as part of a discussion and educational session for youth, members of the community. Youth involved in community based programs are invited to join the YWCA's youth in an awareness and educational event on Thursday, January 26th, at the YWCA's Marta Sutton Weeks Facility, 351 NW 5th Street, Miami, FL from 4pm-5pm.

Stop. Think. Connect.™ is a national public awareness effort encouraging a higher level of Internet safety and security through education. This campaign was initially launched in an effort to empower all Americans to view and utilize Internet safety and security practices through responsible use of home computers, in the workplace, and throughout our communities.

The YWCA USA is one of the oldest and largest women's organizations in the nation with the mission of eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting peace, justice, freedom, and dignity for all. Locally, the YWCA of Greater Miami-Dade serves over 15,000 women, girls and their families annually. Globally, the YWCA USA serves over 2 million women and families, with the World YWCA having affiliates in 122 countries that serve 25 million women and girls worldwide.
